The Master

Mr. Omar Massoud ASFAR

Installed
22nd September 2017

Omar has been connected to the City of London for several years having worked at Linklaters LLP since 2014. He began his training contract in 2016 and has worked in the Mainstream Corporate and Banking Finance departments. He will begin his rotation in the Tax department from late September 2017.

He has had a global and diverse upbringing. He lived in Texas for nearly a decade and a half before returning to the United Kingdom in 2007. He was educated at Strake Jesuit Preparatory and Collingham College before taking a bachelor's degree in History and Politics at Regent's Park College, Oxford and a master's degree in Near and Middle Eastern Studies at the School of Oriental and African Studies. He also has received a Graduate Diploma in Law and undertook the Legal Practice Course at the University of Law.

Omar has been actively involved with the Guild of Young Freemen since 2014 and has been a member of the Court from 2016.

His interests include, among others, history, opera, theatre, politics, currents affairs, and sport including tennis and cricket.
