

The Hon Philip Remnant CBE

Master of The Salters' Company

Philip has spent most of his career in the City in investment banking with Kleinwort Benson, BZW and Credit Suisse. He now holds several non-executive directorships. He is the senior independent director of Prudential and chairman of M&G. He is also chairman of City of London Investment Trust, deputy chairman of The Takeover Panel, and a director of Severn Trent and UK Financial Investments.

He is a governor of Goodenough College and a trustee of St Paul's Cathedral charities.

Philip was educated at Eton College and New College, Oxford where he read Law. He qualified as a chartered accountant with KPMG.

He lives in Hampshire with his wife, Caroline, to whom he has been married for 40 years. They have three children, Edward, Eleanor and Sophie, and three grandchildren.

Philip's interests include cricket, shooting, racing, gentle opera and relaxing at the family's house on Lake Garda in the north of Italy.