

THE WORSHIPFUL COMPANY OF BARBERS

Master
Nicholas Goddard MB BS FRCS

Nicholas was born in Epsom in July 1955 and educated at the City of London Freeman's School before moving on to Barts, qualifying in medicine in 1978.

After qualification, he embarked on a career in orthopaedics and undertook his higher surgical training in London, Harlow, Norwich and Paris, gaining post-graduate qualifications in French, before being appointed as Consultant Orthopaedic Surgeon at the Royal Free Hospital, where he spent 30 happy years. Away from the Royal Free, he has been involved in the medical care at Surrey Cricket Club, the London Irish Rugby Club, the LTA and the Royal Ballet School.

He was clothed with the Livery in 2006 and appointed to the Court of Assistants in 2014. He sits as Orthopaedic Adviser to the Coxen Committee in the City and is a Governor at the City of London Freeman's School.

He married Siân, another Barts' graduate and a GP, in 1978. They have two daughters, one a banker in the City, also a liveryman of the Barbers' Company, and the other working for Rightmove.

He remains a distinct Francophile and enjoys spending time at their second home in Normandy.

His outside interests are in tennis (enthusiastic and regular player), rugby (ex-player, ex-referee, spectator and medical officer) and wine, appreciation and collecting (WSET level 4). He is a member of the Roehampton Club and the RAC, President of Rosslyn Park Football Club and treasures his classic Mercedes 500SL.
