

The Worshipful Company of Basketmakers

Stephen Gee
Prime Warden 2017-18

Stephen was born in London and has always lived there. His business career was solely at Harrods Ltd, where after completing the Executive Training Scheme he held various managerial and buying positions. After being the buyer for the Modern Furniture Department he was appointed Section Manager for the Furniture and Furnishings Division. Stephen is now retired from this role.

Stephen joined the Basketmakers' Company in 2003. He then became a member of the Trade Committee and the Company's representative on the Basketmakers' Association Committee. He has also been the Company's representative for its affiliation with the RAF 5 (AC) Squadron. In addition to sitting on a number of the Company's committees as Prime Warden, he also currently sits on the Committee of the Charitable Trust.

His hobbies and interests are reading history on all aspects of this country in the last century and the history of London. He is a member of the 20th Century Society, a Friend of the Royal Academy, the National Trust, the National Art Fund, and the Wallace Collection. He likes to travel and to visit museums specialising in Georgian European Decorative Arts, Pictures and Furniture. He is a member of the City Livery Club and the United Wards' Club.
