

THE BREWERS' COMPANY

MR RICHARD HAMILTON FLEETWOOD FULLER

Master Brewer 2020-21

Richard worked in forestry before joining Fuller, Smith and Turner, the London brewers, in 1984. He is the sixth generation of the Fuller family since the partnership was established in 1845. During his career he has held a number of positions including Sales Director, Personnel Director and Corporate Affairs Director, Richard became a non-executive Director in February 2020.

Away from the brewing and pub industry, Richard is Chairman of Kempton Park Racecourse, Chairman of the Wavertree Education Trust and a member of The Jockey Club. His interests include racing, both four legs and four wheels (Richard races historic cars), field sports and gardens.

Richard has been married to Charlotte for 28 years and they have two children. Their daughter, Page, is a professional jump jockey and their son, Henry, is heading for a career in film acting.
