

Christopher Hallam FCIS

Christopher's inspiration to become a Chartered Secretary came from his time working for the Derbyshire Stone group in the late 1960's and the encouragement provided by the then group secretary.

Subsequently he joined RB Macmillan Ltd, then a leading national firm of specialist label printers for the retail sector. He became company secretary and a pension scheme trustee.

A fascination with the legal aspects of company secretaryship lead him to join a legal firm where he specialised in corporate transactions and charity sector work.

During his career Christopher held a number of directorships and company secretaryships.

He was Chairman of the ICSA Notts and Derby Branch in 1980.

He became a liveryman in 2008, joined the Court of the Worshipful Company of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators in 2011 and was appointed Junior Warden in 2014 and Senior Warden in 2015. Also he is chairman of the Company's charitable trust.

He is married to Ann, they live in Derbyshire and have two grown up children.
