

Jeremy Kean FCCA

Jeremy was born in Buckinghamshire, and educated at Rugby School. He first worked on the floor of The Stock Exchange for Akroyd & Smithers in the early 1970's before leaving the City to qualify as an accountant in 1981.

Jeremy's career included working in Insurance and banking, before becoming the Finance & IT Director at the Financial Ombudsman Service. During his career he spent time abroad working in Paris, which enabled him to learn to speak French and subsequently buy a holiday home in Northern France.

Retiring in 2010, he now spends his time as a Community First Responder with the South East Coast Ambulance Service, driving for a local charity that enables people to attend medical appointments, helping with a charity based in Malawi that aims to improve the lives of small farmers, and is a Trustee and Chairman of the Finance & Audit committee at the Imperial Society of Teachers of Dancing.

For his leisure activities Jeremy enjoys golf, walking, and watching cricket and rugby. He is a member of the MCC. Travel is also high on his list of priorities and, as a member of the Wine Society, he enjoys visiting vineyards throughout the world.

Jeremy lives in Surrey with his wife Judy and two children, one of who is a Freeman the Company.
