
CV.

John Rodgers Broadley (Jack) .

Born - Edinburgh ,1943 .

Education - Scotus Academy , Edinburgh University , London Business School .

Career. - Joined Littlewoods Chain Stores graduate management training scheme in 1964 and worked at management level for 11 years. Moved to cleaning industry in 1975. Over the next 15 years worked in senior managements positions in UK , Middle East and USA , where I was President , Initial Inc. USA . In early 1980's worked closely with Michael Forsyth (now Lord Forsyth) and Sir Gerard Vaughan on the privatisation of cleaning support services in the NHS.

In 1990 founded Broadreach Services Group together with David Evans MP , which became the major supplier of cleaning services to the retail sector. Sold to a public company in 2002 with turnover of £55m. and 8000 employees.

Trade - Director and Chairman of the Cleaning and Support Services Association our main trade Body .

Livery - Liveryman of Worshipful Company of Environmental Cleaners and installed as Master in 2003-2004 and will now become the first to serve two terms as Master.

Personal - Married to Carol for 53 years . Two sons and four grandchildren .

Main interests - Rugby (member Wasps , debenture holder at Twickenham and Murrayfield) .

Golf (member West Byfleet) .

Food , wine and reading .

.