

WILLIAM EWART BEADLES

IMMEDIATE PAST MASTER 2017-2018 The Worshipful Company of Founders

William Ewart Beadles, Bill, was born in Lanark Scotland spending his formative years growing up in Cheshire.

Following his graduation from Reading University, Bill pursued a career as a Chartered Surveyor in private practice. Initially working in Yorkshire, he spent thirty years in the City specialising in transactional investment and development work on behalf of various Pension Funds, Insurance and Multinational Industrial Companies.

Bill was, for 10 years, the managing partner of Howell Brooks & Partners LLP and is still a consultant to the Practice. He is a keen supporter of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors. Bill has been a Liveryman since 1991, serving on numerous Founders' Committees, notably Property, and became a Warden in 2014.

He thoroughly enjoyed his year as Master, citing numerous highlights, particularly his visit to Treloars School. A lifelong Manchester City fan, Bill enjoys all sports especially tennis and golf.

He is married to Lesley, they have three grown up children and five young grandchildren who keep them very busy.
