

Worshipful Company of Joiners and Ceilers

H James de Sausmarez CC

Master 2020 - 21

James heads Janus Henderson Investors' (JHI) investment trust and investment company business and is a leading figure in the investment trust industry having been involved in investment trusts for over 30 years.

He originally joined JHI in 1992, transferring with the Touche Remnant business. He left in December 1997 but then re-joined in January 2005 as Director and Head of Investment Trusts and is responsible for all aspects of the business including the relationship between JHI and the Boards of the managed investment trusts, service delivery, primary and secondary sales and marketing and new business development. As the primary product specialist for the investment trust business, James has a wealth of technical experience in the field.

James is a Common Councilman of the City of London Corporation and in addition to the Joiners' Company, James is Liveryman and Junior Warden of the Worshipful Company of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators, Chairman of Candlewick Ward Club and a member of other City affiliated organisations.

In addition to his roles in the Livery James is also Chairman of Governors at Queenswood School in Hertfordshire and a member of St Paul's Cathedral Council where he also sits as an independent member of their Finance, Audit and Risk Committee.

James is divorced with two children both of whom are Freemen of the Company.
