

The Worshipful Company of Painter-Stainers

JAMES LEE

Installed as Master 18 October 2016

James is the Agency Managing Director of Atrium Underwriters Limited, a long established leading specialist insurance and reinsurance business, underwriting through Syndicate 609 in the Lloyd's of London Market.

Atrium is part of the Enstar Group, a company based in Bermuda offering a global capability to provide insurance solutions in both the active underwriting and run-off environment.

His career, which spans 30 years, has been entirely within the Lloyd's Market, commencing with Sedgwick in 1986, and more latterly with Atrium, who he joined in April 2002. His background has been financial analytics, legal and compliance and operations, representing the Lloyd's Managing Agents on various Market Oversight and Advisory Committees.

James has been a Liveryman of the Painters' Company for over 30 years having been introduced into the Company by his father and late Lord Mayor Sir Ralph Perring. He is married to Wendy, who he met whilst they both attended Aberystwyth University, and they now have three children. Alison is in her final year studying Fashion and Design at De Montford University (Leicester), and Matt and Carys attend local grammar schools in Chatham.

James chairs the Finance and Management Committee at The Worshipful Company of Painter-Stainers and is a Trustee of their Charitable Fund.

His interests outside of work and his family are; the Outer Hebrides (Isle of Barra), classic cars (owning a 1972 MGB Roadster), and more recently "Park Runs".
