MASTER PLAISTERER 2017-18

Address: Claren, Nightingales Lane, Chalfont St Giles, Bucks HP8 4SF

Wife: Susanne Hanney

Richard was born in Pinner and educated at Haileybury Junior School and All Saints Bloxham. After leaving school he became an articled clerk to a firm of solicitors in Watford, and, after attending the College of Law in Chester and Guildford, he qualified as a solicitor. Richard became a partner in the law firm Matthew Arnold & Baldwin in Watford and served as senior partner from 2001-2009. He now works in a Chancery set of Barristers Chambers in London.

Richard lost his father at a young age but fortunately John Sullivan, his godfather, took a keen interest in his future. Richard himself joined the Company in 2001 and became a member of the Court in 2017. His brother is also a Liveryman of the Plasterers' Company.

Richard is married to Susanne and they have two sons and a daughter and two grandchildren. They live in Chalfont St Giles, Buckinghamshire.

Richard is a practising Anglican and is a member of the Parish Church of Chalfont St Giles and also of Temple Church, London. He is a former Chairman and President of Northwood Round Table and now a member of Northwood 41 Club. He is also a member of the Farmers Club, Whitehall.

He enjoys travelling, walking, a day at Lord's and reading. His chosen charity for his Master's year is the National Literacy Trust, of which the Company's Honorary Liveryman, Her Royal Highness The Duchess of Cornwall is Patron.
