

M George Harris

Third generation Master Poulter, born 1957 in Suffolk, to a Farming Family.

Educated at O.B.H, Felsted and attended Writtle Agricultural College 1976-79.

Actively still involved in the family farm, which is mainly arable, but with 50 suckler cows, situated on the Essex/ Suffolk borders. The Farm is now run by his Son James, also a Liveryman of the Company since 2008.

George's hobbies include shooting, walking, cycling, his vegetable gardening, skiing and cooking and until recently played team hockey.

Assistant Director Suffolk County Show in 2015 and twice Director of the local Agricultural Show.

Joined the Poulterers Company in 1989, making him a fourth generation Poulter and was elected Master on the 1st March 2017.