

Edward Gardiner

Master

Worshipful Company of Scriveners

Installed as Master of the Scriveners Company in July 2018, in 1987 joined the scrivener notary firm Cheeswrights, which was founded in 1779, as an apprentice scrivener notary and appointed as a scrivener notary by the Faculty Office of the Archbishop of Canterbury in 1994.

Currently managing partner of Cheeswrights, Chairman of the Society of Scrivener Notaries and a representative at the International Union of Notaries. Professional notarial clients include a wide range of the City's investment banks, financial trading companies and international law firms.

Lives in London and the Cotswolds with wife Jo-anna, enjoys spending time in holiday home in the French Alps and hobbies include skiing, walking and tapestry.