

*Adam Bennett Master
2020-21*

Adam Bennett was installed, virtually, as Master of the Worshipful Company of Tobacco Pipe Makers & Tobacco Blenders on 3rd June 2020.

He gained the Freedom of the Company in 2011 and was gowned with the Livery that same year. Adam joined the Court of Assistants in 2013 and became 4th Warden in 2016 serving on the GPC in that time.

Adam has worked in the Mechanical & Electrical Services sector of the Construction industry throughout his career, and has worked in a number of senior commercial positions managing key projects within London such as Blackfriars Bridge Station, Sea Containers House and the Olympic Stadium (West Ham Utd) Transformation amongst a variety of other projects across the country. He is currently involved with Stansted Airport and 40 Leadenhall Street.

Having originally worked for such businesses as Northcroft, Balfour Beatty, Briggs and Forrester, Haden Young, Shepherd and Imtech, Adam has recently formed his own Commercial Services and Management business, Monty Adamson Ltd, and is currently working with Mace Ltd. on two of their landmark projects.

Whilst undertaking a busy full-time work role, from 1996, Adam was also a member of the Reserve Forces and was a Commissioned Officer within the Royal Logistics Corps. His last role was as Troop Commander within 158 Transport Regt (Royal Anglian) covering Colchester, Ipswich, Peterborough and Kempston which he continued until 2006.

Adam is married to Samantha. Samantha is a Dental Treatment Care Coordinator and a qualified Florist and has in her time, exhibited at the Chelsea Flower Show. They have been married 24 years and have two children. Polly is 15 and undertaking her GCSE's along with actively pursuing her Duke of Edinburgh Award. Monty, 9, attends the local primary school and loves all forms of sport.

When time permits, Adam enjoys shooting, Gundog training (the family have a Gordon Setter and a Cocker Spaniel), fly fishing and vintage cars and he owns a 1932 Triumph Southern Cross. He is Chairman of Cheveley Royal British Legion, is a member of a number of vintage car clubs and a Non-Regimental member of the HAC.
