

Worshipful Company of
Tylers and Bricklayers
Chartered in 1568

CURRICULUM VITAE FOR MASTER 2017 - 2018

JEFF FULLER

Born: February 1965

Married to Catherine. One son Jack (18).

Catherine is a course leader at the University Arts London and a Liveryman of the Worshipful Company of Framework Knitters.

Jack is studying Politics and History.

Education: Forest School, Christchurch College Canterbury (B.Sc. Hons), University of East London (Dip. LA).

Associations: Jeff was admitted to the Livery in 1989 and has served on the Court since 2009. Jeff is the third generation in his family to serve as Master and the seventh Fuller. His father Peter is a Past Master of the Company and is presently the Father of The Company. Jeff hails from a family of builders whose business was originally incorporated in 1797 and since moving to Walthamstow in 1872 conducted much of its work in the City of London he has a particular interest in the Company's three crafts having acted as Chairman of the Craft Committee for the preceding four years.

Work: Jeff is a practising Chartered Surveyor and a Member of the Expert Witness Institute and covers a wide area encompassing East Anglia and North and East London. Jeff is also a Director of three family businesses and a Trustee of a Charity, all in the property sector.

Interests: Jeff enjoys all sports and particularly cricket, rugby union and football and supports Essex CCC, Leicester Tigers and Leyton Orient FC. Jeff is now only an occasional cricketer and sailor but a keen golfer. As well as sport Jeff enjoys travel, literature, cooking, and food and wine generally, serving on the Company's Wine Committee.